What's Up Phlock The Arizona Parrot Head Club Newsletter

From The President

Karen Lyons

What an amazing Q3 with AZPHC! Dive-In Movie at the Bauman Party Palace, Ronald McDonald House volunteer event, Tres Amigos House Concert, and the 20th Annual Parrot Grande kept us busy. We volunteered 958 hours and raised $15,761 for our charities!

The weekly emails from "AZPHC Prez" are just one way to stay in the loop. Be sure to let me know if you are not receiving the weekly emails and you have renewed the yearly dues. We are alive in social media! Bookmark the events page on our website www.parrotheads.org, like our Facebook page Arizona Parrot Head Club, follow us on Twitter @azparrotheads, and Instagram @azparrotheadclub to stay up to date on all our club happenings.

When I first joined the AZ Parrot Head Club in 2013, I was often confused by all the abbreviations or terms commonly used among Parrot Heads. The veteran members of our club were always happy to help me out. Anytime you have questions or concerns, reach out to me, any member of the BOD or a veteran club member. We are all here to support each other.

Remember the BOD is here to man the rudder, however the direction is influenced by you, our members. Submit ideas for events, volunteer opportunities or charities to support. We are always happy to have new volunteers on our committees also --simply contact the committee chair, me or the BOD to let us know. Do you have friends or family wanting to Party with a Purpose? Encourage them to sign up and join the phun!

Ronald McDonald

by Tammy Bauman

We had a great turnout for our meal serving in September -- 14 volunteers showed up! We didn't have the number of families eating that they were anticipating but that just meant they and us had delicious leftovers! Our main meal was Hawaiian Roll Sliders, recipe compliments of Tracy Kenison. Tracy and I prepared the sandwiches that morning and then brought them to the Ronald McDonald House to heat. We also had potatoe salad, coleslaw, chips, fruit and really cute cupcakes along with tea and lemonade.

When I first arrived at the house there was someone there I didn't know and asked if she was part of the Parrot Heads. She said she was with some other group who was serving a meal. I told her the Parrot Heads are serving here tonight; the girl got on her phone, shook her head and said she was at the wrong house. I told her she could stay and help us :-)

The families loved the food, the kids loved the balloons Chuck & Gina Hauff brought. Chuck was a hit with the kids!

Those who hadn't been there before were given a tour of the facility.

Chuck also had a great suggestion for refreshments afterwards - McKenzies. Great litte bar and the Spirited Lads (Irish band) was playing. Great way to round out the night.

I want to Thank Everyone who came to help and brought food or supplies. We can't do it without you - you all are truly appreciated!

PARROT GRANDE

BY KAREN LYONS

Our 20th Annual Parrot Grande was a huge success! The charity for 2019 was Arizona Camp Sunrise and Sidekicks once again. We returned to the We-Ko-Pa Resort for the weekend.

The weekend started with the Parrot Grande Golf Tournament moving to Friday morning. The move was done to ensure golfers did not miss any of the music on Saturday. It was a great success with 45 golfers enjoying a beautiful warm August morning.

Our theme was A Pirate Looks at 20. Saturday night's pirate decorations and costumes were amazing! The resort stepped up with delicious specialty drinks; the Wrecked Pirate was my favorite. Saturday night guests had to walk the plank to enter dinner. Phred Parrot's long lost twin even came out to play!

For the 20th Parrot Grande musicians, we had a mix of our original PG artists and some new: Jerry Gontang, Mark Mulligan, Sam Rainwater, Bob Karwin, Rudy Bruggeman, Smoot Mahooty, and Mogollon headlining. The wonderful music poolside had some non-Parrot Head resort guests intrigued and we gained a few new members!

The usual Parrot Grande shenanigans were in play. Many fun items were included in the Silent Auction and contributed greatly to our final fundraising total. The 50/50 had two drawings - one each night - with single winners along with our charity. Friday night at the poolside putting green was the It's Midnight and We Still Can't Putt contest. Saturday, we brought back the Boat Races with the entries being made ahead of time. It was a large field of 13 boat captains competing for the first and last place trophies. Special guest judges from the Fort McDowell firehouse ensured all captains safely made it to the finish line.

Before the weekend started, I challenged the club to beat the 2018 fundraising total. The challenge was accepted and we doubled the amount! Our final total raised for Arizona Camp Sunrise and Sidekicks was $14,000! Woo-hoo!

Get ready for the 21st Parrot Grande returning to the We-Ko-Pa Resort on August 28-30, 2020!

Dive In Movie 2019

It was a warm July day but the pool water felt fantastic! Goat grilled up chicken and everyone brought delicious sides, appetizers, and desserts. We had a little issue a couple hours prior to the start of the party: our outside DVD player wasn't working. No problem, we'll move the one from indoors outside. Of course Goat and Queen can be technically challenged and didn't know how to set it up. Luckily Jon Edwards and Adam Lyons came early and had the DVD player hooked up and working by the time people started to gather.

We warmed up with concerts by the Eagles and Bon Jovi. Our movie this year was Captain Ron. A funny classic.

Our 50/50 winner was Charlie Sykes! And yes Kathy Pfister was there!

The big winner was Ronald McDonald House - we collected lots of toys for them!

Thanks to all who came! It was phun! Looking forward to next year!

Phred's Adventures

My last three months!

Wow, what an awesome quarter! My phriend Pablo (Paula M) took me to 3 Buffett concerts: Alpine, Dublin and London! I also spent time in Houston with my pal Susan and made some new phriends there as well. Parrot Grande was awesome and the best part was raising $14,000 for charity! And I made another trip around the sun in July. My life does not suck! I'm heading out right now on another awesome trip, this time with Karl and Sally Summers who are taking me on a cruise from Hawaii to Australia! See ya later mates!

If you want me to travel with you-please contact the Queen at baumanpartypalace@yahoo.com
